

PSAT / NMSQT TEST

TO: All Juniors and Parents of the Class of 2013
FROM: KHS Counseling Office
DATE: September 1, 2011
RE: PSAT / NMSQT Test

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be administered to all interested Juniors on:

DATE: Wednesday, October 12, 2011

TIME: 7:45 A.M.

This test is only for the four-year college bound student and then it is optional. Your student does not need this test to get into college.

The purpose of the PSAT/NMSQT (Preliminary SAT/National Merit Qualifying Test) is to:

- Practice for the SAT college admission test
- Enter the National Merit Scholarship competition
- Give colleges an opportunity to send you information
- Find out your reading and math skill levels

This test is definitely overwhelming and should not be taken by any student who is not at "B" or honor roll level.

The student will receive their PSAT results 6-8 weeks after testing.

The cost of the PSAT/NMSQT test is $15.00***

Please send the bottom of this form in with your payment to the KHS Counseling Office no later than Friday, September 23rd.

THIS IS A NON-REFUNDABLE FEE ONCE FORM IS RECEIVED

I, _____, will be taking the PSAT/NMSQT test on Wednesday, October 12, 2011.

*This fee is used to reimburse the testing company and it is used for administration costs to support student and faculty needs.
