

SCIENCE STUDENT REFLECTION NAME _____

My grade level currently is _____. My current science class is _____.

My greatest strength as a science student is

My greatest weakness as a science student is

The topic in this class which I really understand well is _____.

The topic in this class which we have studied but I still don't understand well is

As I think back to the start of my KHS career until now, I have changed my ideas of what scientists do and how they learn in the following ways:

As I think about a possible future career, the following KHS science topics or classes have been most helpful:
