

Series	300	Instruction
Section	370	Co-Curricular Activities
Policy	377.4	Policy Dissemination

The administration, or designee, will provide the participating students and their parents with copies of current District Policies concerning Academic Eligibility and Rules for Co-Curricular participation (377.2). This information will be provided to parents and students at the required co-curricular activity code meeting.

The participants and their parents will be expected to sign and return the signature form indicating they have read the policies and agree to abide by the rules as written. The signed form must be returned before a student may participate in a competitive event.

Parent's who are unable to attend need to make other arrangements with the Athletic Director.
