

Series 400                      Students
Section 440                   Student Rights and Responsibilities
Policy 443.8                   Computer Ethics

Computer ethics dictate that the student user of the computers and the network system is to be concerned with the student section of the network only. Any attempt to enter restricted programs will result in:

1. Parent Contact and Suspension. (First Infraction).
2. Exclusion for the semester from all school computers; removal from the computer class; and receive a grade of F for the semester. (Second Infraction).

Penalties as prescribed by current statute apply in all situations.

Legal Reference: Wisconsin State Statute 943.70

Cross Reference: 443.85; 443.85P

Approved: October 14, 1991

Revised: April 11, 1994; November 12, 2001

Reviewed: 2004